

When shaws are sheen, and shrubs full fair, And leaves both large and [woods are bright,]

long, It's mer - ry walking in the fair fo - rest To hear the small birds' song. The wood - wee le sang, and would not cease, Sit - ting up - on the spray, So loud he wa - ken'd Ro - bin Hood In the Greenwood where he lay.