

The hunt is up, the hunt is up, And it is well nigh

This musical system is in 6/8 time and B-flat major. The treble staff contains a melody with eighth and sixteenth notes, some beamed together. The bass staff provides a simple accompaniment with dotted half notes and whole notes. The lyrics are written below the treble staff.

day; And Harry our King is gone hunting, To bring his deer to bay.

This musical system continues the melody and accompaniment from the first system. The treble staff features more complex rhythmic patterns, including sixteenth notes and beamed eighth notes. The bass staff continues with dotted half and whole notes. The lyrics are written below the treble staff.