

There was an old fel - low at Walth - am Cross, Who mer - ri - ly sung when he liv'd by the loss, He ne - - ver was heard to sigh with hey - - ho! But sent it out with a heigh trolly - - lo! He cheer'd up his heart when his goods went to wrack, With a hem, boys, hem, And a cup of old sack.